Animals in Parade

You must arrange for someone (a scooper) to clean up after your animals along the parade route. As all equestrian owners know, it is suggested not to feed or water the animal immediately prior to the parade. If your entry includes any dogs or other animals, please ensure they are confined, or on a lead or leash to protect them & others along the route. Your animals must have the appropriate vaccines to participate.

Parades can be overwhelming for pets due to loud noises, large crowds, and unfamiliar sights and smells. If your pet doesn't do well in these situations, it's best to leave them at home.

For everyone's safety, if parade volunteers feel the animal is not equipped to participate for any reason they will not allow entry.
